1. The shipment is mailed at a designated USPS Express Mail facility on or before the specified deposit time for overnight or second delivery day delivery to the addressee. Delivery attempt is not made for the guaranteed time and the mailer files a claim for a refund. The USPS will refund the postage, unless the delay is caused by proper detention for law enforcement purposes, strikes or work stoppages, late deposit or shipment, forwarding, return, incorrect address, or incorrect ZIP code, delay or cancellation of flight, work resulting from events or factors outside the control of the Postal Service or acts of God.

2. Notice is left for the addressee when an item cannot be delivered on a first attempt. If the item cannot be delivered on the second attempt and is not claimed by the addressee within two days of the second attempt, it will be returned to sender at no additional postage.

3. Please consult your local Express Mail directory for room and a p.m. delivery areas and for information on international and military Express Mail services. See the Domestic Mail Manual for details.

4. Insurance Coverage: Insurance is provided only in accordance with postal regulations in the Domestic Mail Manual (DMM) and, for international shipments, the International Mail Manual (IMM). The DMM and IMM set forth the specific types of losses that are covered, the limitations on coverage, terms of insurance, conditions of payment, and adjustment procedures. Copies of the DMM and IMM are available for inspection at any post office and online at psa.usps.gov. If copies are not available and information on Express Mail services is requested, please contact your nearest post office for mailing. The DMM and IMM consist of federal regulations, and USPS personnel are NOT authorized to change or waive regulations or grant exceptions. Limitations prescribed in the DMM and IMM provide, in part, that:

5. The contents of Express Mail shipments defined by postal regulations as merchandise are insured against loss, damage, or theft. Coverage up to $100 per shipment is included at no additional charge. Additional merchandise insurance up to $5,000 per shipment may be purchased for an additional fee; however, additional insurance is void if neither the addressee's signature is requested.

6. Coverage extends to the actual value of the contents at the time of mailing or the cost of repairs, not to exceed the limit fixed for the insurance coverage obtained. Items defined by postal regulations as "negotiable items" (items that can be converted to cash without resort to forgery), currency, or bullion are insured up to a maximum of $15 per shipment.

7. For international Express Mail shipments, insurance coverage may vary by country and may not be available to some countries. Indemnity is not paid for items containing coins, banknotes, currency notes (paper money), securities of any kind, payable to the bearer, traveler's checks, platinum, gold, and silver (manufactured or not), precious stones, jewelry, and other valuable or prohibited articles.

8. Items defined by postal regulations as "nonnegotiable documents" are insured against loss, damage, or theft up to $100 per shipment for document reconstruction; reasonable costs incurred in reconstructing duplicates of nonnegotiable documents. Document reconstruction insurance coverage up to $100 per shipment is NOT available, and attempts to purchase additional document insurance are void.

9. No coverage is provided for consequential losses due to loss, damage, or delay of Express Mail, or for concealed damage, spoliation of evidence, theft, or articles improperly packaged or too fragile to withstand normal handling in the mail.

10. CHANGE, TERMS AND LIMITATIONS ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE. Please consult Domestic Mail Manual and International Mail Manual for details on which are available.

11. Original customer receipt of the Express Mail label must be presented when filing an indemnity claim and for a postage refund.

12. All claims for delay, loss, damage, or theft must be presented within 60 days of the date of mailing for international, call 1-800-222-1844.

13. Claims forms may be obtained and filed at any post office.

14. To file a claim for damage, the article, container, and packaging must be presented to the USPS for inspection. To file a claim for loss of contents, the container and packaging must be presented to the USPS for inspection. PLEASE DO NOT REWAL. THANK YOU FOR CHOOSING EXPRESS MAIL.
